Preliminary report e@uction 26

Between 14 and 16 January 2020, Auktionshaus Felzmann will be auctioning almost 2,800 philatelic lots online in its e@uction format. The online auction will be starting at 6 p.m. on all three days.

This time, airmail and Zeppelin mail – an area that is very popular at both Felzmann’s regular auctions and e@uctions – features as many as 70 catapult mail covers. As well as this, collectors will find a wide range of overseas lots, including a very appealing Asia and Europe section. Among the highlights here are China Block 19 (Lot 10527, starting bid: €500), Iran 1876, 1 Kran red (Lot 10563, starting bid: €500), Turkey with a non-issued 25 Piaster orange (Lot 10903, starting bid: €800) and also Luxembourg with a 1 Sgr in horizontal three-stamp strip (Lot 10744, starting bid: €1,700). There are also plenty of good reasons for collectors to join in the bidding in the Germany section. These range from German antiquity with several “Bavaria Einser” (e.g. Lot 10980, starting bid €300) and “Sachsendreier” (e.g. Lot 11120, starting bid: €2,000) to the modern age via the German Empire with a ten-pfennig “Chemnitz postal forgery” from 1921 (Lot 11293, starting bid: €2,000). Also well worth investigating are a rare $1 ½ emperor yacht with the previously unknown perforation variant 25:16 (Lot 541792, starting bid: €14,000) and a legitimately used specimen of the 70 C “Kerstfest” (Lot 12764, starting bid: €1,000).

The complete catalogue with further high-resolution photos and certificates can be called up on our website at www.felzmann.de. After registering just once, you can take part in e@auctions from the comfort of your own home.
